BARCELONA, SPAIN

Barcelona is an intriguing mix of very old and very modern. From the ancient ruins of a Roman Temple in the Gothic Quarter to the structures built for the 1992 Summer Olympics. Barcelona is a city of contrast with its whimsical architecture of Antoni Gaudi, world class museums, fashionable shopping and fine cuisine.

GENOA, ITALY

Genoa is a leading Italian port, university town and a major commercial center. Its history dates back to 218 BC. when the city was founded by the Ligurians. Today, the old town boasts narrow, busy streets with a typical Mediterranean ambiance.

MARSEILLE, FRANCE

For 2600 years, Marseille has been a port from Massalia, the Phoenician city, to Marseille "gateway to the East", maritime adventure and the rapid expansion of trade in the 19th century are evoked from the Old Port.

MESSINA (TAORMINA), SICILY

Messina's 3,000-year history is full of disasters; a terrible earthquake wrecked the city in 1908 and killed some 60,000 people. When the city was rebuilt, focus was on being a pleasant, open townscape.

NAPLES (POMPEII), ITALY

Neapolis: the new city. The origins of the city are very ancient. Naturally, Pompeii is worth mentioning. Its museum is the most visited in Italy. A sudden eruption of Mount Vesuvius in 79 AD destroyed the town, which was covered by a thick layer of ash.

PALMA DE MALLORCA, SPAIN

Palma de Mallorca boasts a huge variety of restaurants and has plenty to offer tourists. The biggest concentration of restaurants is in the centre of town, at El Terreno, and around the Paseo Maritimo. For some of Spain's best Basque food head to Koldo Royo. Palma de Mallorca's key activities centre around its nightlife and the town is well known for its foam parties, discos, bars and nightclubs.

VALLETTA, MALTA

Rich in history and culture, Malta is a marvel made up of stunning buildings: a visit to the capital reveals the main historic buildings, while the tour of the megalithic temples of Hagar Quim and Tarsia and the cave of Ghar Dalam shows the remote past of this island. The excursion to Mdina and Mosta includes a stop at the picturesque village of Ta Qali.
