AEGEAN WONDERS CRUISE · PORTS OF CALL

ANCONA, ITALY

The second largest city in southern Italy, this port has played a key role in commerce dating back to the Middle Ages. Many of the city's most important buildings, including Saint Nicholas Church, the Cathedral and the huge Norman-Suevian castle were constructed during the Byzantine period. While visiting Bari enjoy the rich fish specialties such as dentex with olives or anchovies and octopus long time favorites of the local people.

ARGOSTOLI, GREECE

In the west of Greece, this city is also known as Kefalonia and offers good shopping, restaurants and museums. The island is named after the mythological figure Cephalus, and was ruled by the Romans from 189 BC, but it reintegrated Greece in 1864. Kefalonia recently gained popularity after the film and novel, "Captain Corelli's Mandolin" were set on its shores.

CORFU, GREECE

The beautiful "Island of Roses" has a rich and varied history. On a hill above the charming town of Lindos rises an ancient acropolis dedicated to the goddess Athena. The crusading Knights of St. John left the medieval city of Rhodes behind when they were defeated by Sultan Suleyman the Magnificent.

KOTOR, MONTENEGRO

The sail into Kotor Bay with its magnificent fjords and pristine islands is worth the visit but there is more. Located on the southern Adriatic coast, the typical Mediterranean town has narrow streets, antique monuments and picturesque buildings. Centuries of seaman influence the history and sites.

PIRAEUS (ATHENS), GREECE

Piraeus has been the port for Athens for over 2500 years. Though a busy place, it has a charm of its own. Athens, the capital of Greece, is the cradle of democracy and the birthplace of Western Civilization. Athens is a vibrant city where old and new co-exist.

SANTORINI, GREECE

The island of Santorini is perhaps the most breathtaking of all the Greek Islands. The town of Fira white-washed houses, narrow streets, open-air cafes and glittering boutiques cling to steep cliffs, accessible by cable-car or mule. To the south is Akrotiri where recent Minoan excavations support the theories that Santorini might be the fabled lost continent of Atlantis.

VENICE, ITALY

Venice is possibly the world's most romantic city. Include visits to the majestic St. mark's Square, Bridge of Sighs, an amazing gondola ride through the city of canals, and purchase famed Murano glassware.
