Baltic Beauty Cruise - Ports of Call

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Copenhagen is Scandinavia's most vibrant and affordable capital, and one of Europe's most user-friendly cities. Small and welcoming, it's a place where people rather than cars set the pace.

KIEL, GERMANY

Kiel, the "city of fresh air", has numerous faces. Located at the Baltic Sea, the city was the countries long time main naval base until the installations were dismantled after the Second World War. Kiel is famous for sailing events. Nikolai Church, dating from 1242, in front of which Ernst Barlachs sculpture of the "Mind Warrior" keeps guard, is located at the Old Market. There is also a colorful assembly of offices, boutiques and shops around the former market place.

ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

One of the most beautiful cities in the world, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North or the Paris of the East, but its beauty is really a brand all its own. From the White Nights festival during the mysterious summer twilight to top theatre and ballet and concert productions, the city offers a vibrant cultural life that is second to none. St. Petersburg is young by European standards, yet the city has an impressive history. From the times of Peter I through the Siege of Leningrad, the city has lived a dramatic and rich life.

STOCKHOLM, SWEDEN

Stockholm is like no other capital in the world. Built on 14 islands, it rises gracefully from water so clean that you can go swimming or fishing in the very heart of the city. Its waterfront is alive with boats, from ferries that shuttle you around the city to sailboats and yachts that cruise the vast stretches of the Baltic. Twinkling, panoramic vistas greet you around every corner.

TALLINN, ESTONIA

This capital city was part of the Soviet Union until 1991 when Estonia declared its independence. Today the city is thriving and capitalism is most evident. The attraction for cruise passengers is the remarkably restored, medieval Old Town, which despite a plethora of shops catering to locals and tourists, still feels a part of the 1400's because of the cobblestone streets and medieval architecture. With an artsy feel in a very much post-Soviet way, it's a delightful place to hang out and people-watch from one of the sidewalk cafes. The shops, especially the galleries and antiques venues, serve up some interesting finds.
