Best of the Baltic Cruise ♦ Ports of Call

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS

One of the world's best hangouts, Amsterdam is a canny blend of old and new. The city seems to thrive on its funky mix and despite hordes of tourists, still manages to feel quintessentially Dutch. The old crooked houses, the cobbled streets, the tree-lined canals and generous parks all contribute to the atmosphere.

COPENHAGEN, DENMARK

Copenhagen is Scandinavia's most vibrant and affordable capital, and one of Europe's most user-friendly cities. Small and welcoming, it's a place where people rather than cars, set the pace.

SOUTHAMPTON, ENGLAND

Southampton has been a settlement since Roman and Saxon times, in Roman times the town was known as Clausentum. The Roman Ruins are situated in a suburb called Bitterne Manor. Its privileged position on England's south coast made it Britain's premier trading post. The town became walled in the medieval era, and some remnants of these defenses remain throughout the city. Southampton was devastated by bombing during the Second World War, so much of its architecture has quite a modern feel to it.

ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA

One of the most beautiful cities in the world, St. Petersburg is often referred to as the Venice of the North or the Paris of the East, but its beauty is really a brand all its own. From the White Nights festival during the mysterious summer twilight to top theatre and ballet and concert productions, the city offers a vibrant cultural life that is second to none. St. Petersburg is young by European standards, yet the city has an impressive history. From the times of Peter I through the Siege of Leningrad, the city has lived a dramatic and rich life.

TALLIN, ESTONIA

As one of the best-preserved and most comprehensive medieval cities in Europe, Estonia's ancient seacoast capital exudes a sense of romantic history. A spirit of mystery still pervades the cobbled courtyards of Tallinn's picturesque old town where winding alleys, overhung with original 12th and 13th century merchant's houses combine a profusion of perfectly-preserved medieval churches and state buildings.
