BARCELONA, SPAIN

Barcelona is an intriguing mix of very old and very modern. From the ancient ruins of a Roman Temple in the Gothic Quarter to the structures built for the 1992 Summer Olympics. Barcelona is a city of contrast with its whimsical architecture of Antoni Gaudi, world class museums, fashionable shopping and fine cuisine.

CIVITAVECCHIA (ROME), ITALY

From the port of Civitavecchia it is not far to the imposing ancient city of Rome, incomparable in terms of monuments, gardens, villas, and works of art: to name but a few, the Coliseum, the Capitol, Saint Peter's Basilica, ancient Ostia with the famous mosaics in the Baths of Neptune.

GENOA, ITALY

Genoa is a leading Italian port, university town and a major commercial center. Its history dates back to 218 BC. when the city was founded by the Ligurians. Today, the old town boasts narrow, busy streets with a typical Mediterranean ambiance.

LA GOULETTE, TUNISIA

African and Arabic hospitality await you in exotic Tunis, on the coast of North Africa. This capital consists of three cities: the modern Capital City of the Tunisian Republic, with its wide streets, skyscrapers; the Arabic Medina (Old Town) from the Middle Ages, an exciting labyrinth laden with narrow alleyways, small shops, huge mosques and palaces and finally Carthage, the ancient Phoenician - Roman city, which lies 18 km from the city.

MESSINA (TAORMINA), SICILY

Messina's 3,000-year history is full of disasters; a terrible earthquake wrecked the city in 1908 and killed some 60,000 people. When the city was rebuilt, focus was on being a pleasant, open townscape.

VALLETTA, MALTA

Rich in history and culture, Malta is a marvel made up of stunning buildings: a visit to the capital reveals the main historic buildings, while the tour of the megalithic temples of Hagar Quim and Tarsia and the cave of Ghar Dalam shows the remote past of this island. The excursion to Mdina and Mosta includes a stop at the picturesque village of Ta Qali.
