FAIRYTALE FJORDS CRUISES • PORTS OF CALL

AMSTERDAM, NETHERLANDS

Amsterdam is one of the world's best hangouts, an enjoyable blend of old and new, where funky design boutiques brush shoulders with traditional stepped-gable houses. The city thrives on an eclectic, fashionable mix and despite being a highly popular vacation Amsterdam still manages to retain its soul and preserve its quintessentially Dutch feel. If you're in the mood for great shopping, a dose of culture, an injection of art and architecture or a pleasant stroll around pretty canal-side streets.

BERGEN, NORWAY

A jewel of a city set among seven sweeping hills and stunning fjords, Bergen is a lively university town, steeped in culture. The city is pleasantly compact, great for easy, accessible sightseeing, with an attractive warren of cobbled streets punctuated with leafy, green and areas perfect for rest and relaxation. If you love the great outdoors, Norway - and Bergen in particular - is the ideal holiday spot for you. Nature-lovers should have their walking boots at the ready, join us on a special trekking tour package that takes in the harbor town of Bryggen with its pretty wooden buildings and a forest hike, all rounded off with a photo opportunity and panoramic view from Floein Mount.

FLAAM, NORWAY

Precipitous mountains, tumultuous waterfalls and plunging valleys surround the delightful small town of Flaam that nestles in a tributary at the southern tip of Sognefjord, Norway's longest fjord. The town offers numerous trails and walks and is also home to Norway's oldest church, built in 1667. Visit the Fretheim Hotel, built in 1870, for spectacular views and excellent cuisine.

OSLO, NORWAY

Oslo is the oldest and least populous capital in Scandinavia. The city offers superb theatre, great cafés, and excellent shopping as well as churches, palaces, parks and museums befitting of a capital. The warm, welcoming atmosphere of a small village. A spectacular setting of fjord and forested hill. Oslo really is a wonderful place to explore.

SOUTHAMPTON, ENGLAND

Southampton has been a settlement since Roman and Saxon times, in Roman times the town was known as Clausentum. The Roman Ruins are situated in a suburb called Bitterne Manor. Its privileged position on England's south coast made it Britain's premier trading post. The town became walled in the medieval era, and some remnants of these defenses remain throughout the city. Southampton was devastated by bombing during the Second World War, so much of its architecture has quite a modern feel to it.

STAVENGER, NORWAY

Stavanger is blessed with history and natural beauty. From the old port, the city radiates across a network of islands interlaced with graceful bridges. Stavanger's Romanesque cathedral and old medieval lanes blend beautifully with the modern city and spectacular countryside.
